

The Heart Of Christmas

Long ago, far away
On a cold and windy day,
In a stable, small and sweet,
Christ was born, gentle and meek.

Mary laid Him in a manger
Soft and sleepy, out of danger;
Then through the night came shepherds with sheep
To praise the Lord, fast asleep.

Three kings came next, wise and bold,
Who gave Him frankincense and gold
Today this lives in the hearts of men
Who hurry to visit in Bethlehem.

This poem was written by:

Lance Compa,
4th Grade.

St. Jerome's School, teacher:
Sister Anne Michelle.
East Rochester, N. Y.

Rochester Catholic Diocese Courier-Journal, September 21, 1956